Bishop Ned and Father Paul Jubilee Pilgrimage to Ireland 2021 Itinerary

October 10 - Sunday 1-night Pre-tour Option Available – See last page

October 11 - Monday United States to Dublin

Depart Atlanta on an overnight flight across the Atlantic.

October 12 - Tuesday Dublin & Book of Kells

Once you complete immigration formalities at Dublin Airport, you'll be welcomed by your tour host, who will guide you to your luxury motorcoach. We'll celebrate our first Mass together at St. Patrick's College in Octoberoonth, where Father Paul attended college. Known as the "National Seminary for Ireland", the college chapel is known for its stunningly beautiful stained glass windows and wood carvings.

Drive to Dublin for a panoramic tour with a local guide who will show you around the prominent historic buildings and monuments of Dublin. Stop in Trinity College to view the illuminated manuscript of the Book of Kells, the 9th-century gospel manuscript famous throughout the world. The intricacies of the illustrations make this one of the top sights to see in Dublin.

Continue to our hotel in Dublin and settle in; enjoy dinner in the hotel restaurant and get to know your fellow travelers. (Lunch, Dinner)

OVERNIGHT: Radisson Blu Royal Hotel, Dublin

October 13 - Wednesday Glendalough & Merry Ploughboy Pub

This morning travel through the scenery of the Wicklow Mountains on the way to Glendalough, one of Ireland's most beautiful destinations. There you'll explore the remains of one of the most important monastic sites in Ireland, Glendalough, with its ruins of a round tower, churches, and Celtic crosses. We'll celebrate Mass at the nearby parish named after St. Kevin, then go to a local restaurant for lunch.

Return to Dublin for a little free time. This evening drive to the town of Rathfarnham to The Merry Ploughboy Pub for dinner followed by a lively show of traditional Irish songs, dancing and music. (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

OVERNIGHT: Radisson Blu Royal Hotel, Dublin

October 14 - Thursday Rock of Cashel and Adare

Depart Dublin and drive west to the Rock of Cashel, a collection of medieval buildings set on an outcrop of limestone in County Tipperary. The Rock of Cashel is an ancient royal site of the kings of Munster and first attained importance as a fortress. Tour the site and hear stories of its key role of Christianity in Ireland.

Continue on to visit Ireland's "prettiest and friendliest village". Adare is famous for its attractive main street of thatched houses and colorful gardens. We'll celebrate Mass and then enjoy free time to explore and have lunch. Continue to Ennis, and check into your hotel. Enjoy dinner at the hotel and then venture out to one of the pubs within easy walking distance. (Breakfast, Dinner)

OVERNIGHT: Temple Gate Hotel, Ennis

October 15 - Friday Aran Islands

Drive to Doolin for your day excursion to the Aran Islands. Take a short ferry ride across Galway Bay to Inis Oirr, which is the smallest and most eastern of the Aran Islands. These rocky islands are renowned for the hardy islanders who maintain traditional fishing and farming methods. The Irish language is still spoken widely amongst islanders today. We'll celebrate Mass in the small local church and then enjoy lunch at one of the local pubs.

On the return trip of the ferry, enjoy unequaled views of the famous Cliffs of Moher from the sea, with these prehistoric cliffs towering above you (weather permitting). After returning from a fabulous day at Inis Oirr, drive a short distance to see the view from the Cliffs of Moher from the other direction, overlooking the water. Enjoy this other perspective of this impressive wall of rock that rises to almost 700 feet above the foaming Atlantic breakers. The evening is free for dining on your own at the many restaurants or Octoberbe an impromptu trad session at local pubs. (Breakfast, Lunch)

October 16 - Saturday Knock and Galway

Depart Ennis and drive north to visit the Marian pilgrimage site of Knock, where local people saw an apparition of the Virgin Mary on the gable wall of the church in 1879. Experience a guided tour of the beautiful grounds and gardens at Knock Shrine. We'll celebrate Mass and provide free time for prayer and lunch on your own in the village of Knock.

Continue to Galway and enjoy a panoramic drive around the city, where you will see key sites. Then enjoy a visit to Micil Distillery and learn about the history of poitin (illegal moonshine!) in Ireland and how Irish spirits are made today. Tour this working distillery and taste samples of these family recipes handcrafted in Galway.

Check into your Galway hotel, which has a great city center location so you can explore the area this evening and try some of the fresh seafood or farm-to-table cuisine at one of the local restaurants. (Breakfast)

OVERNIGHT: Galmont Hotel, Galway

October 17 - Sunday Kylemore Abbey and Killary Fjord Cruise

Drive into the scenic Connemara region to visit Kylemore Abbey, an impressive mansion that is home to an order of Benedictine nuns. Mass will be celebrated and then enjoy free time to tour elegant rooms in the mansion, explore the beautiful small Gothic Church set beside a tranquil lake, and stroll through the six acre Victorian Walled Garden. Have lunch on your own at one of the dining options.

Continue to nearby Leenane and take a catamaran cruise aboard the "Connemara Lady" through Killary Harbour, Ireland's only fjord. You can see great views from this narrow inlet, which is surrounded by hills and cliffs. Also observe the seabirds, seals and otters that live in the waters. Return to Galway where your evening is free to explore some of the local restaurants and enjoy music in the pubs. (Breakfast)

OVERNIGHT: Galmont Hotel, Galway

October 18 - Monday Galway and Father Paul Jubilee Celebration

This morning join a local guide for a gentle walking tour, where you will see the medieval city walls, Lynch's Castle and the narrow streets. After your leisurely walk, enjoy free time for lunch and exploring more of Galway.

Late this afternoon, depart Galway and drive west through County Galway to Loughrea, which means "The town of the grey lake". Loughrea is the Cathedral Parish of the Diocese of Clonfert, and St. Brendan's Catholic Cathedral is arguably one of the country's greatest contributions to European art of the twentieth century. Loughrea also happens to be Father Paul's hometown. Father Paul will celebrate Mass today on the 25th anniversary of his ordination. Afterward we'll have a celebration reception in a local establishment. Return to your Galway hotel after a fun evening in Loughrea. (Breakfast, Dinner)

October 19 - Tuesday Clonmacnoise and Armagh

Depart Galway and head to the center of the country to visit Clonmacnoise. This monastic settlement was founded in 545 AD by St. Ciaran and is set on the banks of the mighty River Shannon. See elaborate High Celtic crosses decorated with biblical scenes and explore the grounds, which include the ruins of a cathedral, two round towers, and three high crosses.

Drive north through Ireland's hidden heartlands where we'll stop at local restaurant for lunch. Continue into Northern Ireland to Armagh, the ecclesiastical capital of Ireland, where St Patrick founded his first large stone church in 445 AD. There are two cathedrals bearing his name – the Church of Ireland cathedral on Sally Hill, and on the opposite hill the twin-spired Catholic St Patrick's Cathedral. Armagh is the ancestral home of Bishop Ned. (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

OVERNIGHT: Armagh City Hotel, Armagh

October 20 - Wednesday Armagh and Bishop Ned's Jubilee Celebration

This morning take a guided tour of St Patrick's Church of Ireland Cathedral, which contains many relics of history, among them a true stone High Cross and the grave of Brian Boru, an Irish King who ended the domination of the O'Neill kingship in Ireland. Continue to No.5 Vicars' Hill, and then to the Armagh Robinson Library, one of the oldest libraries in Ireland. County Armagh is known as the Orchard of Ireland; visit local farms to experience the whole process of cider making. Tour the orchards and cidery, taste the cider flavors, and enjoy lunch.

Discover more about Armagh's sacred history when you visit the place from which Ulster's ancient kings once ruled, Navan Fort, and one of Ireland's most important archaeological sites. Learn about Celtic history before St. Patrick's arrival. Enjoy a guided tour with an expert guide and meet Celtic characters who will transport you back to ancient history.

Atop a hill on the other side of the valley is the twin-spired Roman Catholic Cathedral also dedicated to St Patrick. Bishop Ned will celebrate his Jubilee Mass of Thanksgiving today at St. Patrick's Cathedral. Afterward we'll have a celebration reception in a local establishment. (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

OVERNIGHT: Armagh City Hotel, Armagh

October 21 - Thursday Return to the United States or Post-Tour

All too soon, your time in Ireland has come to the end. Depart Armagh and transfer to Dublin Airport to board your aircraft and return to the United States. (Breakfast)

Optional – 2 Day Post Tour to visit the Giants Causeway and Belfast. See last page.

1-Night Pre-Tour Option: If you'd like to arrive a day early to acclimate and get over jet-lag, we have a one-night pre-tour stay. Fly into Dublin one-day early, departing Sunday, October 10, 2021, and arriving on Monday, October 11 and enjoy a stay on the grounds of Kilkea Castle; Carriage Rooms are located within the Courtyard of Kilkea Castle. This package includes your hotel accommodations, dinner in Restaurant 1180 in Kilkea Castle, breakfast, transportation arrangements from the airport on day of arrival and next day to Maynooth to meet the group.

The pre-tour package includes:

- 1 Night's accommodation in a Carriage Room located within the Courtyard of Kilkea Castle.
- Admission to Irish National Stud & Gardens
- Transfer from Dublin Airport to Irish Stud to Kilkea Castle
- Dinner in Kilkea Castle's fine dining experience, Restaurant 1180
- Breakfast in Kilkea Castle
- Transfer from Kilkea Castle to Maynooth (go directly to the first stop of our tour - instead of sitting around at the airport waiting for the group flight, we'll transport you directly to Maynooth at the appropriate time)

The pre-tour package is $359 per person for double-occupancy, or $459 for single-occupancy.

This package is available for those who are making their own flight arrangements and for those who are using the group air - we've blocked a group of seats departing on Sunday, October 10, 2021, which is a day earlier than the regular group flight.

2-Night Post-Tour Option: Extend your time in Northern Ireland with an excursion to the UNESCO World Heritage Giant's Causeway on the north coast, truly an amazing sight, made more fascinating by the insights of our private guide. Then travel through the Glens of Antrim, small villages along the coast, to Belfast. Stay in the heart of the city at the four-star Europa Hotel, the perfect location for exploring. On your second day, learn about the history of the troubles with a Black Taxi Tour, and also visit the top attraction, Titanic Belfast. Northern Ireland is known for its authentic and local food culture, so enjoy dinner at the top seafood restaurant. Transportation to the Dublin Airport is provided October 23.

The post-tour package includes:

- 2 Night's accommodation in Europa Hotel in the heart of Belfast.
- Admission to the Giant's Causeway
- Private guide for Giant's Causeway and Antrim visits
- Black Taxi Tour, covering the history, politics, murals of Belfast
- Admission to Titanic Belfast
- Dinner at Fish City Belfast, awarded Best Seafood Establishment at Food Awards Northern Ireland
- 2 Breakfasts
- Transportation from Armagh to the Giant's Causeway to Belfast.
- Transfer from Belfast to Dublin Airport

The post-tour package is $789 per person for double-occupancy, or $899 for single-occupancy.

This package is available for those who are making their own flight arrangements and for those who are using the group air (we'll arrange for your return flight from Dublin to Atlanta on October 23, 2021).
